ISO 9001:2000

We have recently registered the Division with QMI, North America's leading management systems registrar. The Corps of Commissionaires is the only ISO 9001:2000 registered security company in Canada. The Quality Management System that we adhere to has three basic components.

1. We say what we do. Our clients know the services that we will provide them.

2. We do what we say. We consistently provide services that meet and exceed our Client's expectations.
3. We prove it. All of our management processes are audited by external auditors and we follow-up with Customer Satisfaction Survey's to ensure that we are doing the best job possible.
