Greeting From The Chair

On behalf of the Board of Governors, I am pleased to extend special holiday greetings to all Commissionaires and their families.

Let me take this opportunity to express our appreciation for all your good work throughout the year. The Board recognizes and celebrates your professionalism and dedication.

Christmas is for most of us a time for a break from work, for family and friends, for presents, turkey and crackers. At the same time we recognize that in our business security is a 24 hour job. It is said that security never takes a holiday. So special thanks to those of you who will keep the business going at holiday time while the rest of us take a break.

Recently I came across some advice which I would like to share:

This Christmas mend a quarrel. Seek out a forgotten friend. Dismiss suspicion, and replace it with trust. Write a love letter. Share some treasure. Give a soft answer. Encourage youth. Manifest your loyalty in word and deed. Keep a promise. Find the time. Forgo a grudge. Forgive an enemy. Listen. Apologize if you were wrong. Try to understand. Examine your demands on others. Think first of someone else. Appreciate. Be kind. Be gentle. Laugh a little. Laugh a little more. Take up arms against malice. Decry complacency. Express your gratitude. Go to church. Welcome a stranger. Gladden the heart of a child. Take pleasure in the beauty and wonder of the earth. Speak your love. Speak it again. Speak it still once again.

Best wishes for a joyful holiday season.

Sue Kathler
Chairperson

To All Members of the Corps

This holiday season families will gather with neighbors and friends to rekindle old friendships, revive honored traditions, and renew the hope and love that is part of the season. Part of the tradition is to thank those who have served us well throughout the year. I want to take this opportunity to acknowledge your fine work. To all members of the Corps, thank you for your service and dedication.

On behalf of management and staff, I extend our warmest and most heartfelt wishes for a safe and a happy holiday.

Art Sutton
Chief Executive Officer
