The Division is quickly expanding our focus on being the Security Training Provider of Choice for Manitoba. The Corps needs a few good men and women to act as part time / full time Instructors. If you are an enthusiastic, professional we need you to help address the growing demand for “our brand of training”. Previous Instructional experience would be an asset but is not mandatory. This is your chance to have a major impact on the quality of security staff throughout the province. If you are interested contact your Training Officer, Len Baspaly at 942-5993 ext. 249 for further details.

Military Humour

During training exercises, the lieutenant who was driving down a muddy Back road encountered another car stuck in the mud with a red-faced colonel At the wheel. "Your jeep stuck, sir?" asked the lieutenant as he pulled alongside. "Nope," replied the colonel, coming over and handing him the keys, "Yours is."

Having just moved into his new office, a pompous, new colonel was Sitting at his desk when a private knocked on the door. Conscious of his new Position, the colonel quickly picked up the phone, told the private to Enter, then said into the phone, "Yes, General, I'll be seeing him this Afternoon and I'll pass along your message. In the meantime, thank you for your Good wishes, sir." Feeling as though he had sufficiently impressed the young Enlisted man, he asked, "What do you want?" "Nothing important, sir," the airman replied, "I'm just here to hook up Your telephone."

Officer: "Soldier, do you have change for a dollar?"

Soldier: "Sure, buddy."

Officer: "That's no way to address an officer! Now let's try it again!"

Do you have change for a dollar?"

Soldier: "No, SIR!"

An Air Force Chief Warrant Officer and a general were sitting in the Barbershop. They were both just getting finished with their shaves, when The barbers reached for some after-shave to slap on their faces. The general shouted, "Hey, don't put that stuff on me! My wife will Think I've been in a whorehouse!" The Chief turned to his barber and said, "Go ahead and put it on me. My wife doesn't know what the inside of a whorehouse smells like."
