COMMISSIONAIRES

TRUSTED · EVERYDAY · EVERYWHERE

Commissionaires in Afghanistan

In mid January, six Commissionaires including 2 women were deployed to Kandahar Air Field in Afghanistan. Their duties consist of Pass Control and Production. These positions are of a recurring nature based on a 1 year tour. We did not participate in the initial deployment because of a very short timeline. If you are interested in duties of this sort...contact Pete Paterson @ 942-5993 Ext: 221 or clnsvs@commissionaires.mb.ca more information will be made available to you.

Job Competition

We are accepting applications for one Commissionaire to be responsible for the Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada hearings held in Winnipeg. The hearings are held approximately 20 weeks per year and on an ad hoc basis (numerous hearings with often less than 48 hours notice). The start date for the successful candidate is approximately April 1st, 2008. The qualifications required are as follows:

- Flexibility to work assigned weeks plus ad hoc basis at the various sites in Winnipeg throughout the year
- Set DARS (digital audio recording) equipment consisting of laptop and microphones for hearings
- Download recording of hearings from laptop hard drives to CD's and return to Vancouver
- Set up polycom telephone
- Photocopy and fax documents as required
- Verify and record hours for interpreters in person or via telephone

Interested applicants are asked to submit their resumes to Vivianne Hogg, Dispatcher, no later than February 20th. If you have any questions about this position, please call the dispatch office at 942-5993 ext 218
